Associate Director, Centers for Teaching Excellence and Faculty Leadership

Academic Affairs invites applications and nominations for Associate Director, Center for Teaching Excellence and Faculty Leadership (CTE/CFL).

The Associate Director of CTE/CFL:

In coordination with the Director:

- collaborates with other faculty development units on campus
- oversees teaching development incentives
- encourages innovative collaborative strategies
- plans and implements programs to assist with course and curriculum development, mentoring, leadership, and new faculty orientation

Qualifications of the Associate Director

- Show a record of teaching excellence
- Current appointment as a tenured associate or full professor at UNCW
- Commitment to teaching excellence and faculty leadership
- Ability to work with diverse faculty and administrative groups
- Strong organizational abilities
- Familiarity with current and emerging educational approaches
- Commitment to support innovation
- Interest in working with effective teaching and assessment
- Good technology skills

Appointment Details

- Includes a four-course reassignment during academic year and summer support
- Reports to the Director of the Centers for Teaching Excellence and Faculty Leadership

Application Instructions

- Submit:
  1) a statement of interest (not to exceed five pages)
  2) a curriculum vitae

Please send all nominations and applications to Dr. Cathy L. Barlow barlowc@uncw.edu.

The effective date of this appointment has been moved to the Spring Semester. Applications/nominations will continue to be accepted until the position is filled.

8-24-2015