

Young Alumnus of the Year Award

The UNCW Alumni Association presents the annual Young Alumnus Award to an alumnus who has graduated within the last 10 years, and makes outstanding contributions to their chosen field or participates in humanitarian activities that makes a difference in the well-being of others.

Nominations are accepted from alumni, faculty, staff and friends of the university throughout the year with a deadline of October 15 to be considered as a recipient for the upcoming year. Nomination materials should be received in full, as outlined below, by the UNCW Office of Alumni Relations.

CRITERIA

- Candidate completed at least one course at UNCW, but does not have to be a graduate
- Candidate has achieved distinction in their chosen profession; and/or participates in humanitarian activities that make a difference in the well-being of others
- Candidate has exceptional ethical qualities
- Current UNCW faculty and staff are not eligible for this award
- Completed nomination packet must include:
 - Nomination Form
 - Letter stating the candidate's qualifications for the award, written by the nominator; if self-nominated, letter can be written by the candidate
 - Two letters of recommendation to support the nomination, from different sources
 - Additional documentation to support nomination if necessary, i.e. information about awards received, press releases or news articles citing community involvement, candidate's resume

PROCESS

1. Solicitation of nominations from alumni, friends of the university, faculty and staff
2. Nominations accepted throughout the year
3. Nominations received and completed by October 15 are reviewed by the Alumni Association Awards & Scholarships Committee
4. Candidates not selected will be considered for the award for up to three years, as long as they continue to meet the award criteria.
