

The Journal of Effective Teaching
an online journal devoted to teaching excellence

CALL FOR PAPERS

Manuscripts for the next issue will be due October 31, 2009. Articles will be accepted in any of the Content Areas supported by the journal.

The Journal of Effective Teaching is an electronic journal devoted to the exchange of ideas and information about undergraduate and graduate teaching. Articles are solicited for publication which address excellence in teaching at colleges and universities. We invite contributors to share their insights in pedagogy, innovations in teaching and learning, and classroom experiences in the form of a scholarly communication which will be reviewed by experts in teaching scholarship. Articles should appeal to a broad campus readership. Articles which draw upon specific-discipline based research or teaching practices should elaborate on how the teaching practice, research or findings relates across the disciplines. We are particularly interested in topics addressed in the particular Content Areas described at the journal site, including empirical research on pedagogy, innovations in teaching and learning, and classroom experiences.

The Journal of Effective Teaching will be published online twice a year at www.uncw.edu/cte/ET/. All manuscripts for publication should be submitted electronically to the Editor-in-Chief, Dr. Russell Herman, at JET@uncw.edu.

Manuscripts for publication should:
