Code of Conduct

During our 26 years of operation, MarineQuest has developed a code of conduct to make sure that everyone has a positive experience. This means that all participants – students, chaperones, parents, teachers, and MarineQuest staff – shall respect the individual rights, safety and property of others. Parents, please read these rules (parents: with your child), sign the bottom, and return the form.

I will:

- be mindful of my instructors and respect their requests and follow their directions
- respect all UNCW property and equipment
- bring closed-toed shoes and dress appropriately
- pick-up after myself and throw all trash away
- respect other participant's property and feelings
- let my instructor know if I am or am not having a good time
- have fun in ways that are safe to others and myself
- have a positive attitude

I will not:

- fight with other participants with my hands or my words
  - go above my knees in the water
  - share food with other participants (due to food allergies)
  - go anywhere without the permission and accompaniment of my instructors
  - use derogatory terms or offensive language when talking to or about other participants
  - tease or bully other participants
  - bring inappropriate items (includes weapons, drugs, etc)

If I chose not follow this code of conduct:

First time: I will be given a verbal warning explaining the expected behavior.
Second time: Parent/ guardian will be called and student will be asked to leave.
