

ADULT SCHOLARS LEADERSHIP ALUMNI

MISSION

Adult Scholars Leadership Alumni (ASLA), diverse and active graduates of the UNCW Adult Scholars Leadership Program, seeks and promotes unique learning and service opportunities that benefit its members, the community and UNCW.

GOALS

For Individual ASLA Members

- Provide avenues for volunteer and entrepreneurial opportunities.
- Encourage social and goal-oriented networking among members and community leaders.
- Motivate individuals to expand and share intellectual and life experiences.

For Our Community

- Become widely recognized as a community resource for volunteer activism and entrepreneurial assistance.
- Reach out to residents who wish to expand community knowledge.
- Develop and promote ASLA programs which add value to the community.
- Perform each community service in a professional manner reflecting a favorable impression of ASLA and UNCW.

For UNCW

- Provide a resource of diverse experiences and skills of ASLA members to UNCW in a way to enhance the university's offerings. Examples include but not limited to:
 - Advocacy groups that support UNCW academic goals
 - ASLP programming and recruitment
 - Mentoring
 - Volunteer services
 - Business support
 - Assist students in meeting community service goals
 - Fund raising
 - Lobbying
 - Actively support UNCW events and activities
 - Research assistance