Academically & Intellectually Gifted Conference

April 17, 2015
UNC Wilmington
Watson College of Education
9am-3pm

Keynote Speaker:
Ian Byrd
byrdseed.com

For more information, visit www.uncw.edu/ed/aig/

Utilizing Technology to Support Advanced Learning
Master of Education with Specialization in Academically or Intellectually Gifted

The M.Ed. with Specialization in Academically or Intellectually Gifted is a 33-hour program designed for K-12 educators who hold a minimum of a Standard Professional 1 or initial teaching license. Upon completion of the program, graduates will qualify for the Academically or Intellectually Gifted Add-on Licensure.

Program of Study

Professional Core
- EDL 530: Curriculum, Instruction, and Assessment
- EDL 513: Organizational Theory and Leadership
- EDN 525: Tests, Measures, and Measurements in Education

AIG Core
- EDN 552: Introduction to Gifted Education
- EDN 553: Social and Emotional Development and Guidance of Gifted Learners
- EDN 554: Curriculum, Methods, and Materials for Gifted Education
- EDN 555: Program Design, Implementation, and Evaluation in Gifted Education
- MIT 512: Integrating Technology into Teaching and Learning

Cognate Area (Choose One Area of Focus)
- Curriculum (3 courses)
- Leadership (3 courses)
- Research (3 courses)
- Special Populations (3 courses)

For more information, visit www.uncw.edu/ed/aig/