New Hanover County has developed a program allowing for persons with special needs to remove obstacles that threaten the safety of special needs individuals during a disaster. This program involves a “Special Needs Registry” process whereby completing the attached form may allow the County to provide various services to registrants. Information about the program may be found at: http://em911.nhcgov.com/be-prepared-ready-nhc/special-needs-registry/

For questions, please contact the Special Needs program manager located in the New Hanover County Senior Resource center at 910-798-6400.
