Mark Fincannon

Motion Picture Casting Director “Unconventional Casting”

A native North Carolinian, Mark Fincannon works with producers and directors in finding the acting talent that they need to successfully produce films and commercials on location in the Southeastern U.S.A. He, along with his brother Craig, began Fincannon and Associates, a motion picture casting company in Charlotte, North Carolina in 1979. They moved their company to Wilmington in 1983 to accommodate the casting needs for the newly emerging Screen Gems Studios in Wilmington, N.C where they were joined by Craig’s wife, Lisa, in 1988.

Fincannon and Associates has been responsible for casting more than 125 feature films, 100 television movies of the week, five television mini-series and hundreds of television commercials. They are currently casting the 3rd season of One Tree Hill, the successful WB series, as well as Surface, NBC’s science fiction series. Mark is an Emmy award-winner for casting the Tom Hanks HBO From the Earth to the Moon.
