

The Coastal Carolina Chapter of the United Nations Association U.S.A. joins with UNCW Office of International Programs, UNCW Osher Life Long Learning Institute, and UNIFEM North Carolina's Wilmington Chapter to invite you to the

2009 UN DAY CELEBRATION

Luncheon and Fundraiser for Education Projects

UN DAY LUNCHEON PROGRAM

“Fostering Global Partnerships: International Student Perspectives”

Sunday, October 25th, 2009
1 p.m. UNCW Madeline Suite

Lunch / Donation: $25.00 Students: $15.00

A panel of International Exchange Students studying at UNCW will share information about their respective countries and personal experiences.

Kari Beck (Germany)
Hanae Matsui (Japan)
John Okumus (Turkey)
Irene Portilla (Ecuador)

Panelists will discuss United Nations Millennium Goal 8: Foster Global Partnerships for Development.
Panel moderator is Denise M. DiPuccio, Ph.D., Assistant Provost of International Programs.

Reserve your seat by October 23 by calling Stephanna Tewey (793-4101) or emailing Amanda Boomershine (boomershinea@uncw.edu).

Please consider sponsoring a student or making a donation if you cannot attend. Make checks payable to Coastal Carolina UNA-USA. Your support is appreciated!