Sheet Total: _____

*No more than 9 graduate credit hours, including transfer credit hours, may be taken outside the MALS curriculum. Such courses must be approved by the student's graduate advisor and require the approval of the instructor.

No more than 6 graduate credit hours may be transferred from other institutions. The application of credit towards MALS degree requirements involves the approval of the student's graduate advisor, arranging for an official transcript to be sent to the student's graduate advisor, and the completion of a graduate transfer credit form (available by way of the "Forms" link on the MALS web page), which should be submitted, along with the official transcript, to the UNCW Graduate School Office.
