TEACHER'S TUITION BENEFIT

North Carolina General Statute Sec. 116-143.5

FOR OFFICE USE ONLY:
STATUS: IN-STATE OUT-OF-STATE
TERM _____
DATE OF MEETING _____
COMMENTS _____

Under North Carolina General Statutes Section 116-143.5, certain North Carolina Teachers may become eligible to be charged the in-state tuition rate even if they do not qualify as residents for tuition purposes under G.S. 116-143. I. NC teacher applicants may receive this benefit for approved courses taken for teacher certification or professional development. To qualify, an applicant must be a teacher or other person paid on the North Carolina teacher salary schedule incident to full-time employment by a North Carolina public school. "Full-time employment" means the employee's duties qualify him/ her for membership in the Teachers and State Employees' Retirement System or would so qualify the employee if he/she were employed on a permanent basis. Applicants must qualify academically for admission to UNCW.

Copies of the applicable law and implementing university regulations are available for inspection upon request in the Graduate and Undergraduate Admissions Offices and Randall Library.
