NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION UNDER THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR’S PERMANENT LABOR CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

An application concerning the employment of one or more alien workers for the following permanent position will be filed with the Department of Labor. This Notice of Filing will be posted for 10 consecutive business days, ending between 30 and 180 days before filing the permanent labor certification application.

NAME OF EMPLOYER: University of North Carolina at Wilmington

POSITION TITLE: Assistant Professor – International Relations

POSITION DUTIES: The Department of Public and International Affairs is seeking a Tenure Track Assistant Professor in International Relations with an emphasis on International Security and Conflict to teach in the Graduate Program in Conflict Management and Resolution (CMR). The CMR program offers both a Master’s degree and a Certificate in CMR and concentrations in National and International Security (NIS) and Domestic, Social and Organizational Conflict Transformation (DSOC). This program is based on a dual-format, blended-course model which includes intensive instructional blocks utilizing face-to-face instruction, video teleconferencing and mobile access followed by self-paced but guided distance education. Candidates must be capable of excellent teaching in the Graduate Program and are also expected to offer courses in international relations at the undergraduate level, traditional class-room delivery. This position carries a 3-3 teaching load and the candidate will be expected to begin in August 2017.

POSITION REQUIREMENTS: A PhD in Political Science, International Relations, International Security, or a related field required. ABDs will be considered for the position with anticipated completion of degree within first academic year. The successful candidate is expected to maintain a productive and active research agenda producing peer reviewed research, and to participate as a department citizen through service obligations as needed.
