A scenic canal tour of Amsterdam only begins to reveal the beauty of this city, enhanced by such sites as the Van Gogh Museum and world-famous Keukenhof Gardens. The Hague is the seat of the Dutch Government and the de facto capital of the United Nations, housed in the Peace Palace. Students may want to spend their free time here enjoying the sun under a cabana at the beach in Scheveningen. In Paris, students may want to explore the Left Bank, stroll along the Champs-Elysees, or visit Notre Dame Cathedral. In the breathtaking city of Nuremburg, we will explore its historic city center, including the famous Frauenkirche. Everywhere students will have superb local cuisine from which to choose, and a myriad of opportunities to experience local culture, handicrafts, art, and architecture.

Program Activities & Features

Our study begins in the Netherlands, where we will be introduced to Dutch culture and visit the International Criminal Court at The Hague. We then travel to Paris, where we will visit the Palace of Justice and the French Police Museum. While in Strasbourg, located near the German border, we will attend hearings at the European Court of Human Rights. In Germany, the program includes stops at Nuremberg, the site of the first war crimes tribunal, and finally Bonn to visit both local and federal courts.
