Seville, with its 700,000 residents, is the capital of the region of Andalusia and the fourth largest city in Spain. Enjoying culture from the Romans, Visigoths, Muslims, Jews, and Christians, Seville has become one of the world’s richest cities in history and tradition. Its Moorish palaces, narrow cobblestone streets and beautiful gardens remind visitors of centuries past. Its lively street-life, colorful fiestas and friendly people offer a warm welcome. With its festivities (The Feria de Abril, the passionate Semana Santa), flamenco shows, tradition of the tapeo, and orange blossom smells, Seville represents the essence of Spain.
