Program Overview

Take a walk through history as you explore the streets of London while you engage in classroom instruction and university settings with your British colleagues. You will shadow London’s best teachers and administrators daily and learn about the British educational system. Enjoy your evening tea as you stroll by Big Ben and the London Bridge. Visit the Travel Book Store from the movie, Notting Hill or walk Kate Middleton’s wedding steps through Westminster Abbey. Watch the famous changing of the guard at Buckingham Palace for a glimpse of Queen Elizabeth departing from her home. London is a bustling city of over 8 million people with an energy felt on every street corner and an experience that will be life altering.

Academics

EDL 664 – Internship International (2 credit hours), Summer 1 2017

The trip itself is EDL 664: International Internships in the Educational Leadership for masters and doctorate level students. This 2-hour practicum includes at a minimum 60 hours of educational activities (school observations, lectures, and follow-up debriefing sessions) while in London.
