Program Overview

The CSB Summer Study Abroad in London and Hatfield, UK program offers students an incredible opportunity to live and learn in a foreign country while completing required business courses! While participating in the program, you can take one or two core classes in business and enjoy a wonderful cultural experience. Students attend classes at a British university (Hertfordshire), and live in a British town (Hatfield) for four weeks. London, one of the world’s great cities, is a short train ride away. Classes are held Monday through Thursday, allowing three-day weekends to explore the UK and continental Europe.
