Monday, Nov. 12

International Education Week Reception
Join us as we celebrate the kickoff of International Education Week!
Clock Tower Lounge, 4pm

Asian Student Association Presents: "What's Up with That?!"
Participate in a lively discussion on cultural stereotypes.
Upperman Center – Fisher University Union, 6pm

The Power You Have to Make a Difference: Common Reading Experience
Attend an inspiring presentation by speaker and human rights activist Cleve Jones, creator of the Names Project AIDS Memorial Quilt.
Burney Center, 7pm

Tuesday, Nov. 13

UNCW Women’s Rugby Scrimmage and Discussion: Rugby around the World
Watch an exciting game of rugby and learn how the game is played around the world.
Gazebo Fields, 4pm - 5pm

International Internship & Service Learning Panel & Expo
Learn more about international internships, volunteer and service learning opportunities.
Cameron 210, 5pm - 6pm

International Crafting with UNCW’s Creative Seahawks Craft Club
Make your own Batik t-shirt. All materials provided!
Commons Amphitheater, 6pm - 8pm

International Scavenger Hunt with Study Abroad Ambassadors
Register your team prior to the event via e-mail: Mackenzie Russell, mlr4592@uncw.edu.
Clock Tower Commons, 6:45pm

Egypt: The Story Behind the Revolution
Watch the historic documentary that chronicles the struggle to remove Egypt’s dictator from power. Afterwards, take part in a discussion session with the film’s award winning director, Khaled Sayed.
Lumina Theater, 7pm

Wednesday, Nov. 14

Al Norte Al Norte: Latino Life in North Carolina
Attend a thought provoking photo presentation by renowned photojournalist José Galves.
Education Building 162, 5:30pm

Internationalization of Teacher Education
Join Watson College of Education as they explore various aspects of global teacher education, then participate in lively related discussions.
Education Building 266, 10:30am-12:30pm

Thursday, Nov. 15

Slainte Irish Dance Club Performance
Experience the exciting sights and sounds of traditional Irish dance.
Commons Amphitheater, 11am - 12pm

A Fulbright Semester in Ukraine: Borsch and Bureaucracy
Learn more about the Ukraine with an enlightening presentation by Diane Levy.
Dobo 103, 3pm

Short Term & Summer Study Abroad Information Session
Take the first step to studying abroad and learn about UNCW’s short-term, summer, and faculty-led programs.
Cameron Hall 105, 4pm - 5pm

Marketing Your Study Abroad Experience
Learn how to highlight your study abroad experience on your resume, cover letter and in an interview.
Cameron Hall 101, 4pm - 5pm

Internship Opportunities Abroad: Experiences from Costa Rica
Find out more about exciting international internship opportunities.
Leutze 131, 5pm - 6pm

Friday, Nov. 16

RITMO Latin Dance Club Performance
Enjoy a special dance performance by RITMO Latin Dance club.
Dubs Café Lounge, 2pm - 3pm

ON GOING EVENTS:
International Cuisine at Dubs Café 10:30am - 2:30pm
Delight in various international cuisine each day in Dubs Café.

www.uncw.edu/international