ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE PROGRAM
UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA WILMINGTON

Academic Program and UNC Wilmington
- Intensive immersion program on the Atlantic coast
- Part of 16 - campus state university system: 14,000 students
- TOEFL and degree program preparation
- 20 hours of class weekly
- Professional faculty and small classes
- Various program lengths (5, 8 or 16 weeks)
- Conditional admission option
- Popular majors at UNC Wilmington: Business, Education, Nursing, Marine Biology

Cultural Excursions, Friendships and Campus Life
- Excursions to regional places of interest
- Optional semester break trip to larger city
- Service learning program
- ISO: International Student Organization
- Friendship programs: conversation partners and host families
- Variety of housing options
- Meal plan and various cafeterias on campus
- Full sports and swimming facilities

Wilmington, North Carolina
- Historic port city of 160,000 residents
- Located on Cape Fear River
- Close to Atlantic coast beaches
- Sunny, sub-tropical climate
- Large, modern, green campus
- Located midway between New York & Florida

Application Process
- Minimum of 18 years of age and basic level of English
- Application form (Web page)
- Financial statement & bank letter (Web page)
- Copy of passport
- Application fee: $100
- Web: http://uncw.edu/international/esl/home.html
- Call (910) 962-7354 for more information