

Operations & Systems Administration
Key Performance Indicators
2009-10

1. Reduce our electrical, cooling and equipment footprint through consolidation and virtualization of server and storage resources.
2. Provide enhanced service to our university community through deployment of automation technology and development of technical documentation.
3. Ensure the availability and recoverability of systems and services provided by our department.