

E. Report on Institutes and Centers

The University of North Carolina at Wilmington administers no inter-institutional institutes or centers.

The University of North Carolina at Wilmington administers two units formally authorized as institutional centers by the Board of Governors:

Center for Business and Economic Services
Center for Marine Science.

An inventory with primary designation and Web links was submitted electronically to the Office of the President on May 10, 2005, according to instructions provided to Chief Academic Officers. It consisted of the following information:

1. Center of Business and Economic Services

Category: Public Service

Director: William (Woody) Hall, Ph.D.

Web address: <http://www.csb.uncw.edu/centers/cbesindex.stm>

2. Center for Marine Science

Category: Research

Director: Daniel G. Baden, Ph.D.

Web address: <http://www.uncw.edu/cmsr/>