

ALPHA PHI SIGMA

National Criminal Justice Honor Society

ALPHA PHI SIGMA, the National Criminal Justice Honor Society, invites applications from criminology majors and minors. Established in 1942, Alpha Phi Sigma is the nationally recognized honor society for students in criminal justice. Today, Alpha Phi Sigma has over 280 chapters in colleges nationwide. APS is affiliated with the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences and holds its annual meeting in conjunction with the ACJS meeting.

Eligibility

To become a member, undergraduate students must have declared a major or minor in criminology, completed three full-time semesters (at least 36 hours) toward graduation and be recommended by the chapter advisor. Undergraduate students must maintain a minimum of a 3.2 GPA overall and a 3.2 GPA in their criminology major/minor and have completed a minimum of four courses within the criminology curriculum. Graduate students must be enrolled in a graduate program related to criminal justice, maintain a minimum GPA of 3.4 and complete at least four courses within the related criminal justice curriculum. Members of APS are considered life members. There is a $50.00 fee to join. APS members receive an attractive pin and certificate suitable for framing.

Application must be submitted by October 31st, 2011 for fall semester induction.

For more information, contact Dr. Christina Lanier, SBS 208B, at lanierc@uncw.edu or by phone at (910) 962-7691.