

Center	Date	Program	Highlights/Collaboration	Expected Outcome
Upperman African American Cultural Center	1/21/2008	Film: The Color Purple	In celebration of MLK day & as introduction of upcoming Danny Glover campus event	Increase understanding of & develop an appreciation for a multicultural society
Upperman African American Cultural Center	1/22/2008	Celebrate Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Birthday	Distribution of materials commemorating Dr. King	Honor important U.S. historical figure in area of civil rights
Upperman African American Cultural Center	1/23/2008	Martin Luther King, Jr. Candlelight Vigil	With UNCW Presents & Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity: Dr. T. Burgh, Guest Speaker	Pay tribute to Dr. King & reflect on his life & legacy
Upperman African American Cultural Center	1/24/2008	Danny Glover Live Performance: "An Evening with Langston & Martin"	MLK Featured Event: Dramatic readings from works of Langston Hughes & Dr. King	Engage UNCW & community in meaningful event to commemorate a celebrated leader
Upperman African American Cultural Center	2/1/2008	Film & Discussion: Colored White Boy w/ Dr. Maurice Martinez	Address issue of "skin color" during black renaissance era in U.S. history; with UNCW Watson School of Education	Increase understanding of & develop an appreciation for a multicultural society
Upperman African American Cultural Center	2/6/2008	Lecture/Q&A w/ Sylvester Monroe, Sr. Editor, EBONY magazine	Leadership luncheon, diversity training, keynote address for students, faculty & staff	Provide opportunity to UNCW & community to benefit from & engage distinguished guest; maintain a campus climate where differences of opinion can be aired openly
Upperman African American Cultural Center	2/8/2008	Homecoming Activity: "Step Show"	With UNCW NPHC, ACE & AAGA; Performance by National Pan-Hellenic Council	Historically black fraternities & sororities afforded opportunity to collaborate socially; showcase culturally rich talent
Upperman African American Cultural Center	2/9/2008	Homecoming Legacy Scholarship Dance w/ live band, "The Four Knights"	Benefiting the Dr. Denis G. Carter Legacy Scholarship; w/ AAGA	Create a diverse multicultural environment on campus; recruit more minority students

Center	Date	Program	Highlights/Collaboration	Expected Outcome
Upperman African American Cultural Center	2/11/2008	African American International Travel Abroad Session	With UNCW Office of International Programs	Encourage interdisciplinary work; create a positive undergraduate experience; provide students w/ info relating to study abroad programs; increase an understanding of a multicultural society
Upperman African American Cultural Center	2/26/2008	Panel Discussion on "Politics & Race"	On-campus event for UNCW students, faculty & staff	Provide forum where students, faculty & staff are able to discuss upcoming presidential election; maintain a campus climate where differences of opinion can be aired openly; panelists heighten understanding of the role of Black Americans in the election
Upperman African American Cultural Center	2/27/2008	Film: War Dance , African Diaspora Film Series	Film follows three children living in a displacement camp in northern Uganda who compete in their country's national music and dance festival	Increase understanding of multicultural society
Upperman African American Cultural Center	3/13/2008	Lecture & Book-signing: Art in Crisis: W.E.B. Dubois and the Struggle for African American Identity and Memory ; by Dr. Amy Kirschke, Professor, Art & Art History	In celebration of National Women's History Month	Increase students' awareness of contributions and achievements of women in higher education; create diverse multicultural environment on campus
Upperman African American Cultural Center	3/18/2008	Forum & Panel Discussion on the African American Male: Developing a Vision for Connecting Family, Education & Community	Focus on research & best practices on advancement of African American male; presentations by leading scholars on family, community & the educational system; panel discussion w/ Ben David, D.A. for New Hanover & Pender Cos. & Dr. Tim Tyson, Professor & noted Historian, Duke University	Increase understanding of multicultural society; encourage interdisciplinary work; recruit more minority students; develop high quality co-curricular & out-of-class programs

Center	Date	Program	Highlights/Collaboration	Expected Outcome
Upperman African American Cultural Center	3/20/2008	Career Development Workshop: "Your Career & Your Future"	Target audience: UNCW students	Provide students w/ better understanding of career choices in relation to future job markets
Upperman African American Cultural Center	3/26/2008	Film: Killer of Sheep , African Diaspora Film Series	Film examines Watts, the black Los Angeles ghetto, circa 1970s through eyes of Stan, a sensitive dreamer growing detached & numb from the psychic toll of working in a slaughterhouse	Increase understanding of multicultural society
Upperman African American Cultural Center	4/11/2008	Poetry Reading: Open Microphone Event for Students	In celebration of National Poetry Awareness month	Provide environment for students to hear & recite poetry as a form of cultural expression
Upperman African American Cultural Center	4/16/2008	Workshop: "Religions of the World"	With UNCW Department of Philosophy & Religion	Increase students' understanding of different world religions & cultures
Upperman African American Cultural Center	4/17/2008	Black Faculty & Staff Association Social	End-of-year interaction & network opportunity for UNCW colleagues & staff	Increase understanding of multicultural society; recruit more minority students
Upperman African American Cultural Center	4/23/2008	Film: PRIDE , African Diaspora Film Series	An uplifting film based on a true story, coach Jim Ellis (Terrence Howard) shocks the community & changes lives when he sets out to form Philadelphia's first black swim team. The story follows Ellis as he recruits teens & tries to transform the streetwise youths into a championship squad. But the odds are against them as they battle rigid rules, racism & more.	Increase understanding of multicultural society
Upperman African American Cultural Center	5/9/2008	Cultural Ceremony: Senior Sankofa	To honor & recognize graduating UNCW African American students amidst their family, friends, UNCW administration, faculty & staff	Create a positive undergraduate experience; develop among students & faculty an appreciation for a multicultural society; recruit more minority students

Center	Date	Program	Highlights/Collaboration	Expected Outcome
Centro Hispano	March-o8	Coordination Meeting on Campus Life	With UNCW Campus Activities & Involvement	Create positive undergraduate experience; create diverse multicultural environment on campus
Centro Hispano	March-o8	UNCW Hispanic Organizations meeting	Coordination of multiple campus organizations	Create positive undergraduate experience; create diverse multicultural environment on campus; develop among students & faculty an appreciation for a multicultural society
Centro Hispano	April-o8	Hispanic & Latino Culture Celebration	Cultural celebration; scholarship & student profile announcements; musical performance by world-famous tango musician, Raul Juarena	Develop among students & faculty an appreciation for a multicultural society; recruit more minority students
Centro Hispano	May-o8	Latin American Food-Tasting & Mini-Performance	On-campus event for UNCW students, faculty & staff	Increase understanding of multicultural society; recruit more minority students
Centro Hispano	May-o8	"Campus Conversations Series"	With professional guest speakers; on-campus event for UNCW students, faculty & staff	Provide intellectually challenging learning environment; develop high quality co-curricular & out-of-class programs
Centro Hispano	May-o8	Film: Walk Out Facilitator ; Hispanic/Latin American Film Series	Film portrays Mexican-American students who decide to take action and stage walk-outs at 5 East Los Angeles high schools	Increase understanding of a multicultural society
Center for Multi-Culturalism & Pre-College Programs	1/16/2008	Film & Discussion: Transamerica	Award-winning film depicts Bree, a man who longs to be a woman, receiving the shock of her life when 1 week before final sex change surgery, she discovers a son she didn't know she had. Stars Felicity Huffman in an Oscar-nominated performance. With UNCW Counseling Center	Provide awareness and sensitivity workshops for needs of gays and lesbians

Center	Date	Program	Highlights/Collaboration	Expected Outcome
Center for Multi-Culturalism & Pre-College Programs	1/22/2008	Tu B'Shevat Celebration (Jewish Arbor Day)	A Jewish holiday celebration of the New Year of the Trees; "We gave out pots and seeds and offered fruits and nuts, as is customary on this day."	Campus community will gain insight into Jewish religious traditions
Center for Multi-Culturalism & Pre-College Programs	2/7/2008	Chinese New Year Celebration: "The Year of the Rat"	Distribution of materials commemorating Chinese New Year, including cultural quiz, interesting anecdotes & customs	Increase understanding of a multicultural society
Center for Multi-Culturalism & Pre-College Programs	2/11/2008	Lecture & Book-Reading: The Mapuche Man who Became a Woman Shaman: Selfhood, Gender, Transgression and Competing Cultural Norms by Dr. Ana Mariella Bacigalupo	With UNCW Anthropology Department; SUNY Buffalo to discuss the Mapuche , a Chilean indigenous community	Increase awareness and sensitivity workshops for the needs of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender individuals; increase understanding of a multicultural society
Center for Multi-Culturalism & Pre-College Programs	2/18/2008	Film & Discussion: Black Indians: An American Story w/ Dr. Patricia Barker Lerch, Chair, Department of Anthropology	Narrated by James Earl Jones, this film brings to light a forgotten part of America's past, the cultural & racial fusion of Native & African Americans; produced & directed by the award-winning Native American production company, Rich-Heape films; with UNCW Anthropology Department	Gain insight to the cultural and racial fusion of Native and African Americans; increase understanding of a multicultural society
Center for Multi-Culturalism & Pre-College Programs	3/17/2008	Film & Discussion: The Yacoubian Building , an Egyptian film by Marwan Hamed' discussion by Dr. Lisa Pollard	A film highlighting "one of the oldest buildings in downtown Cairo . . . an ideal place to become acquainted with the inner Egyptian soul;" with UNCW History Department & "Campus Conversations"	Promote programs that recognize distinctive cultural heritages
Center for Multi-Culturalism & Pre-College Programs	4/24/2008	Lecture: Queer Approaches to Sexuality Studies in Japan and Korea by Mark McLelland, PhD	With UNCW History Department and OutWilmington	Increase awareness and sensitivity workshops for the needs of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender individuals

Center for Multi-Culturalism & Pre-College Programs	August-08	Welcome Reception for Asian/Pacific Islanders, Native Americans and members of PRIDE	On-campus event for UNCW students, faculty & staff	Promote programs that recognize distinctive cultural heritages & increase awareness & sensitivity for lesbian, gay, bisexual & transgender individuals
Center for Multi-Culturalism & Pre-College Programs	October-08	Field Trip to Carolina Wat Monastery	With UNCW Philosophy & Religion Department	Campus community will gain insight into religious traditions, values & beliefs of an Asian religion

Center	Date	Program	Highlights/Collaboration	Expected Outcome
Center for Multi-Culturalism & Pre-College Programs	10/2/2008	Recognition of International Day of Non-violence	With day-long "Read-in" from collected works of Mahatma Ghandi	Campus community will gain insight into religious traditions, values & beliefs & pay tribute to an international historical figure in the area of peace, non-violent protest & civil rights
Center for Multi-Culturalism & Pre-College Programs	October-08	LGBT History Month Celebration	Poetry reading with jazz-infused, hip-hop performances by Lenelle Moise	Provide awareness & sensitivity workshops for needs of gays, lesbians, bisexuals & transgender individuals
Center for Multi-Culturalism & Pre-College Programs	November-08	Lecture: Native American Programming by Joni Adamson, PhD	With UNCW Anthropology Department	Campus community will gain insight into traditions, values, and beliefs of indigenous populations
Center for Multi-Culturalism & Pre-College Programs	November-08	Multi-faceted Cultural Presentation: Native American, especially Kiowa by N. Scott Momaday, PhD (Popular Writer, Teacher, Artist, Storyteller)	With UNCW Anthropology Department	Campus community will gain insight into traditions, values, and beliefs of indigenous populations
Center for Multi-Culturalism & Pre-College Programs	October-07 & March-08	College Opportunity Program/Spring & Fall Conferences	With UNCW student interaction; scheduled workshops, events & support sessions for student & parents re: admission, financial aid & college life	Target high school & middle school students, especially those from socioeconomically challenged backgrounds, & encourage them to attend college
Center for Multi-Culturalism & Pre-College Programs	Spring 2008	"Great Expectations" Awards Banquet	Provides opportunity & extra incentive with award of $1,000 UNCW scholarship	Formed to focus on targeting students from historically underrepresented populations to pursue higher education
Center for Multi-Culturalism & Pre-College Programs	4/21/2008	Film & Discussion: Balzac and the Little Chinese Seamstress ; a Chinese film by Sijie Dai; discussion by Dr. Yixin Chen, UNCW History Department	Based on the best-selling novel set during China's cultural revolution, this film tells the story of two young university students sent to a remote mountain village for a Maoist re-education	Promote programs that recognize distinctive cultural heritages

Center for Multi-Culturalism & Pre-College Programs	Spring 2008	Luncheon for Public School Counselors	Outreach to public school systems including Bladen, Brunswick, Columbus, Duplin, New Hanover, Pender, Onslow & Sampson counties	Inform the schools of UNCW programs, missions & goals
Center for Multi-Culturalism & Pre-College Programs	7/18/2008 - 7/21/2008	Pre-College Residential Program for High School Freshmen and Sophomores	Outreach to public school students in GEAR UP	Encourage & assist students to plan and prepare for university education and campus life

Center	Date	Program	Highlights/Collaboration	Expected Outcome
Center for Multi-Culturalism & Pre-College Programs	Ongoing	Program Engagement of Isaac Bear Early College High School Students	A partnership between the NC New Schools Project, New Hanover Co. Schools, & UNCW, students participate in an accelerated h.s. education program w/ honors courses geared toward preparing students for the academic rigors of college. Successful students will graduate from the program w/ a h.s. diploma & up to 60 college credits.	Creating a positive undergraduate experience; recruiting more minority students; encouraging interdisciplinary work; providing intellectually challenging learning environment; enriching learning environment through new technologies; developing high quality co-curricular & out-of-class programs