IRON-JAWED
ANGELS

Defiant young activists take the women's suffrage movement by storm by putting their lives at risk to help American women win the right to vote.

CHISHOLM 72
UNBOSSSED AND UNBOUGHT

In 1968, Shirley Chisholm becomes the first black woman elected to Congress. In 1972, she becomes the first black woman to run for president. Shunned by the political establishment, she's supported by a motley crew of blacks, feminists, and young voters.

LEONA'S
SISTER GERRI

The powerful story of the anonymous woman behind a grisly image and how she became an icon for the ever-controversial abortion issue. Through tears and laughter, Gerri Santoro's tale of desperation in the days before legal abortion is told by family & friends.

THE EDUCATION OF SHELBY KNOX

A 15-year-old girl's transformation from conservative Southern Baptist to liberal Christian and ardent feminist parallels her fight for sex education and gay rights in Lubbock, Texas.
