

Jesus outside the Box

believing out loud

Thursday, Oct. 19
7:00 p.m.
Lumina Theater

In the infant days of the Church, the apostles and early Christians faced a mammoth challenge: figuring out how best to worship and spread their faith. Sister Carol Perry, one of the first women to attain an advanced degree in theology, speaks about the experience of these early Christians through the narrative of the Acts of the Apostles: how they believed out loud.

Sister Carol Perry, SU is a biblical scholar, author, educator, and storyteller. She has served as resident biblical scholar at Marble Collegiate Church in Manhattan for 37 years. She is the author of Waiting for our Souls to Catch Up and Among Women.

The lecture is free and open to the public.
