

STILL WITH US: A REFUGEE'S STORY OF WAR, RESILIENCE AND HOPE

Tuesday, March 14 6pm

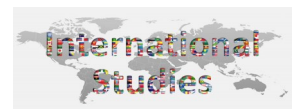

UNCW Morton Auditorium
(corner of Racine & Randall)

Oliver Mweneake will share his story of war survival in DR Congo, life as a refugee, migration to Canada, and the impact of global demand of coltan and other minerals on Congolese people.

Monetary donations for Interfaith Refugee Ministry Wilmington will be accepted at the event.

Sponsored by the UNCW Department of International Studies.

*This event is free and open to the public.
Questions? boomershinea@gmail.com*

