

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK

UNCW.EDU / INTERNATIONAL

MONDAY - 14

November 14 - 18

International Education Week and Global Citizen Award Reception

Join us as we celebrate International Education Week and the Global Citizen Award & Travel Grant faculty/staff winners. FSC Clock Tower Lounge, 4pm - 5pm

Little Bee to NC: Working with Refugees

Learn about the refugee population in Wilmington, and the volunteer and career opportunities working with refugees. Cameron Hall, 105, 5:30pm - 7:30pm

Terrorism & Kebab

A popular Egyptian Comedy Film about government corruption, and the good hearted nature of the sha'ab (people) of Egypt. Leutze Hall 139, 6:30pm - 8:30pm

Going the Distance: Long Distance Relationships in College

Discuss some of the pitfalls and tips for success in long distance-relationships while living or studying abroad. Fisher Student Center, Wrightsville Beach Room 2017, 6pm-7:30pm

TUESDAY - 15

Russian Cuisine and Holidays

Use your Russian language skills, while tasting traditional Russian cuisine: such as borsht, kasha, exotic tea & Russian-style crepes. Community Room at Seahawk Crossing, Building #2, 12pm - 2pm

i-Fest: 24th Annual Intercultural Festival

A festival highlighting cultures and countries with food, dance, music, performances and exhibits showcasing the rich cultural diversity of our community and beyond. Burney, 4pm-8pm

WEDNESDAY - 16

Interested in a Career in the U.S. Department of State?

Jasper Daniels, Diplomat in Residence for the Mid-Atlantic Region, will provide information and answer questions about working in the U.S. Department of State. Fisher Student Center, Wrightsville Beach Room, 10:30am-12:00pm

The °C /°F Reading Series: Poetry & Performance

International poet Moez Surani will read from his latest book, OPERATIONS, and Jordan Scott will perform CLEARANCE PROCESS, a sound-based poetic text. Fisher University Union, Azalea Coast 2001, 4:30pm - 6 pm

Life Abroad: Stories From Study Abroad Students

Hear real experiences from returned study abroad students and international students while studying abroad. Leutze Hall 131, 6pm-7pm

These Boots Are Made For Walkin'

Explore the history, language, culture and cuisine of this fascinating, challenging experience of walking 500 miles west to Santiago de Compostela. Cameron Hall 101, 6pm - 7pm

Life on the Line

Documentary looking at immigration through the eyes of one young girl growing up on the U.S./Mexico border. Fisher Student Center, Lumina Theater 1006, 7pm - 8pm

Populations in Distress

Doctors Without Borders' Response to the Health Needs of the Refugee Population in the Mediterranean and Europe. McNeill 1005, 7-8pm

THURSDAY - 17

Wagsgiving: Study Abroad & Games on the Run

Learn about studying abroad in over 800 locations across the globe with music and games Outside of Wagoner Dining Hall, 3:30pm - 6:30pm

Hunt for the Wilderpeople

New Zealand adventure-comedy film: Raised on hip-hop and foster care, defiant city kid Ricky gets a fresh start with his new foster family in the New Zealand countryside. Fisher Student Center, Lumina Theater 1006, 7pm - 9pm

FRIDAY - 18

Affordable Education Abroad Options

Explore scholarships and tips for wallet friendly ways to study abroad. Cameron Hall, 111, 4pm-5pm

