The Williams-Kowal Award is awarded to a student interested in basic science research.

The Michael Bradley Award is awarded to a student interested in applied research.

The Cape Fear Area Psychological Association Award is for basic science or applied research by a student interested in graduate work in applied areas such as one of the mental health professions.

Applications available on the psychology website, in the psychology office, or by emailing Dr. Van Camp at vancampc@uncw.edu.