NOVEMBER 2018

MEETING SNAPSHOT

Guest Speaker: Provost Sheerer
Provost Sheerer spoke to Staff Senators and guests about a variety of topics, including:

- Recognizing the Staff Senate as a much-needed, diverse group on campus that helps to bring forward a variety of important issues to address.
- Addressing UNCW’s successes and challenges following Hurricane Florence.
- FLAC, Chrome River, Starfish, communication during the hurricane, community outreach, and the new Administrative Annex building.

Guest Speaker: Megan Purser, Assistant Director of Annual Giving
This is the sixth year that UNCW has celebrated Giving Tuesday. Megan shared that there are multiple ways for staff to give back to UNCW. Click here to learn more.

Additionally, more than 336 students and 53 employees have benefited from the Hurricane Relief Funds. Thanks to all who contributed to these funds!

THANK YOU!

Guest Speaker: Dawn Brown, Staff Assembly Chair
Staff Assembly is taking the initiative to begin research on long term paid parental leave. There is also continuing discussion on the Adverse Weather Policy.

Apply online for the Staff Senate Scholarship
Applications for the 2019-2020 academic year will be accepted from December 1 - March 1, 2019. Dependents and spouses of staff are eligible! Apply through UNCW’s scholarship page. Click here for more information and application instructions.

HR UPDATES

- EHRA salary increases (if applicable) will be reflected in the November paycheck (retroactive to July 1).
- Join the 24 Hours in 7 Days Community Service Leave Challenge! Use the rest of your Community Service Leave before the end of the year. Check out these eleven service opportunities for UNCW staff.
- Full Cycle Performance Mid-Cycle Reviews must be completed in Full Cycle Online by Dec. 21, 2018.