NOTE: To satisfy the Applied Learning Requirement for a B.A. degree in History, a student must successfully complete at least two research-intensive 400-level seminar/special topic courses. Individual conferences with faculty, independent research, and the production of a substantial piece of historical writing are required. Students are also encouraged to work with the faculty in designing independent study and research opportunities.

An overall "C" (2.00) average is required in all History courses applied toward the major, and a grade of "C-" or better is required in each course applied toward the major.

NOTE: Students are required to take a minimum of 6 hours of seminar work selected from 400-level courses, HST 491 and 498 excluded. No more than 6 hours of HST 491 and 498 can be counted toward the major. Only one 251-289 course can substitute for one 300-400 level course. Students completing departmental honors in History may apply 3 hours of HST 499 towards the seminar requirement.
