

Considerations For a Shared ePortfolio

When sharing your ePortfolio, you have to remember any content posted is considered Public. All Copyright laws must be followed.

COPYRIGHT

Do NOT use someone else's work without permission, even if it doesn't have a copyright symbol.

PLAGIARISM

Do not use someone else's words or ideas on your public ePortfolio without giving credit to the source of the information.

FAIR USE

Fair Use allows you some freedom with copyrighted work. Some excerpts from copyrighted material may be use for educational purposes.

CREATIVE COMMONS

Creative Commons is a non-profit organization that is helping others legally share their creative works.

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

Copyright

Plagiarism

Fair Use

Common Sense Media