

An Evening with Kai Davis

28 February, 2019 @ 6 PM

Randall Library Auditorium

A reception will follow

Join the UNCW LGBTQIA+ Resource Office for an evening with Kai Davis, a two time international grand slam champion, artist, activist and educator.

Kai, a queer woman of color, dedicates herself to teaching poetry to under-served youth, organizing poetry workshops, and performing original poetry. Much of her poetry centers around topics of race, gender, power, and sexuality with its multiple layers.
