

CARE

October 2018 Programs

Make-a-T-Shirt-Night

10/15 at 6pm, Seahawk Village Clubhouse

Channel your inner-artist while making a difference...Help CARE make t-shirts for the Clothesline Campaign!

You can support the worldwide project by painting words, images, or colors representing testimony to the impact of domestic violence. T-shirts displayed 10/17-10/26.

Clothesline Campaign

Displayed 10/17-10/26 on Randall Lawn

The Clothesline Campaign amplifies the issue of interpersonal violence through students creating and displaying t-shirts on campus during Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

My Stand Training

11/5 from 3:30-5pm
11/7 from 3:30-5pm

*Participants MUST attend both dates*

Register:

<https://uncw.edu/care/involvement/mystand.html>

Take Back The Night

10/18 at 7pm, Riverfront Park, Downtown

Hosted by the Domestic Violence Advocacy Council and Domestic Violence Shelter and Services, TBTN raises awareness about the issue of domestic violence, while empowering survivors.

The march through the streets of downtown Wilmington will begin at 6:30 p.m and return to the Alton Lennon Federal Building for the rally.

New November Program...
Hashtags: From Hollywood to The Hill

Stay tuned for November Title IX +
Bystander Response-Ability Trainings

CARE Open-Sessions

10/19 10am: Expect Respect, Bear Hall 102
10/23 3pm: Family Feud, McNeil 1031

CARE is holding 5 open-sessions for any student to attend; 2 in October and 3 in November. Attendance slips will be available for students who may be eligible to receive class credit for attending.

*My Stand Training is also available for class credit IF the student registers and attends BOTH dates.*